

The Search For Classes Page

To find classes for the upcoming term, use SEARCH FOR CLASSES in your Student Center (not the Course Catalog).

1 Term: Term can be selected from the drop-down menu.

2 Additional Search Criteria: Search by department, times, instructor, keyword, location (for SCPS courses), or College area requirement.

To view all classes in a department, use DEPARTMENT and one other search field.

3 Select Subject: Click on the “select subject” tab to browse through course subjects or enter the course subject in the field to the right.

4 Course Number/Career: Here you can limit your search by course number or course career.

5 Open Classes: You can limit your search here by only showing classes that are still open for enrollment.

Uncheck this option to see classes that have gone to a wait list.

6 Search: Click here to perform search.

Class Search Results

The results show all the classes that meet your search criteria. Multiple sections, and lectures with dependent labs or discussions, are grouped together. Click on the “Section” link to see detailed information about the class, including description, enrollment capacity, and remaining number of seats, and links to class syllabi and prior instructor evaluations. All individual topic titles for topics courses that have been received by UREG from departments/schools are displayed.

If you search from the Enroll tab when adding a class, you will also see the “select class” buttons that allow you to add directly from the search pages.

 In advance of your appointment time, you can start placing courses you might want to take in ENROLLMENT REQUESTS.
